

LET'S GET IT STARTED

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION FOR PARENTS AND THEIR CHILDREN

An interactive presentation and conversation about substance use and family expectations

This is a real conversation!

Participants will be able to have offline conversations about topics including:

- The influences on children today and their culture
- What skills children need to be successful
- Making good decisions in the face of peer/social pressure

Learn with other families how we can help with:

- Talking honestly and openly about substance use
- Sharing expectations and experiences
- Encouraging good choices
- Respect and responsibility
- Keeping our children drug free
